IV. CORRESPONDENCE

A. 10 Stone Ridge Lane-Phone message to Sue at DPW. Mr. Cabrera phoned on Wednesday, November 27, 2013. Mr. Cabrera noted," that trees were planted at 1 and 9 Stone Ridge Lane and along the front of St. Luke's. He has been waiting for 4 years for two trees to be planted along his property as promised by the Chairman of the Shade Tree Commission one day when he spoke to him in the borough hall. Mr. Cabrera also has two stumps he has waited 4 yrs to be removed also. One is covered by mulch and is near the utility box the other has mushrooms growing out of it and can't be missed. Please phone him at 201-320-1835. Can he have two trees planted and his stumps removed this year?

B. 422 Ardmore Road-Mrs. Smith- Her new tree was planted. She likes it however it isn't planted where we said it was going. Now it blocks her view and she would like it moved to the original spot. Please review and call her at 201-445-5491 between 2:30 and 5:30 PM (best time to call) with course of action.

C. 227 Racetrack Road-Steve & Barbara Milone-201-445-5310. Trees planted in front lawn not in curb side as they were told. Wants trees removed from front lawn and planted in curbside or they don't want them.
